

Kangirsuk Local Business Seminar

Thinking of going into business for yourself?

Do you want some details before making a decision?

The Research and Economic Development Department of the Kativik Regional Government will be holding a one-day seminar for those just starting out in business or just thinking about going into business.

We will explore:

- How to get started
- What qualities you need to be a successful business person
- Who will be your market
- How to plan your business successfully
- How starting a business will impact you and your family
- Where to find start-up funding
- How to evaluate your chances of success
- Who to turn to for help in planning and starting up

When: January 16, 2007 from 8:30 AM to 5:00 PM

Where: Northern Village of Kangirsuk Conference Room (Downstairs)

To register, please give your name to the receptionist at NV Kangirsuk (819) 935-4388.
